Turtle Bay Resort's Public Relations Manager Named to Board of Directors of the Ko`olauloa Educational Alliance Non-Profit Corporation

NORTH SHORE, OAHU, HI (January 30, 2007) Keoki Wallace, public relations manager for Turtle Bay Resort, has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Ko`olauloa Educational Alliance Non-Profit Corporation.

The Ko`olauloa Educational Alliance Non-Profit Corporation was established over fifteen years ago to serve as a bridge between the major employers along O`ahu's famous North Shore, including the Turtle Bay Resort, Kahuku Hospital, Brigham Young University Hawai'i, Hawai'i Reserves Inc. and the Polynesian Cultural Center, and the public schools that service the same area, including Kahuku High and Intermediate School and all of the feeder (Sunset, Kahuku, La`ie, Hau`ula and Punalu`u) Elementary Schools.

Wallace has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Finance and Accounting from the University of Utah and a Juris Doctor Degree from the William Howard Taft School of Law. He has over 25 years of experience representing corporations and boards in many different capacities and has worked in educational positions as well, including two years as an adjunct professor of finance.

In addition, Wallace served for six years in the 142nd Military Intelligence Battalion (National Guard) as an Interrogator in the Bulgarian/Russian Unit and served as a Managing Officer for the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

Located on the North Shore of O`ahu, the 880-acre Turtle Bay Resort is operated by Benchmark Hospitality International and is a Preferred Hotels® & Resorts Worldwide property – a collection of the world's finest independent luxury hotels.
